Summary of reasons for classification:

The DVD Burn is classified as:
Unrestricted: Parental guidance recommended for younger viewers.

The DVD contains a short feature showing professional surfers surfing in various locations around the world. It also contains a documentary on making surfboards, some trailers, and other short segments that focus on surfing. The DVD does not have content that is likely to be harmful to children or young persons. Younger viewers would benefit from parental guidance, however, as there is a small amount of offensive language on the DVD. This unrestricted classification does not interfere with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act (1990).
